No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the story of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1863.

By Telegraph.

The dispatch this morning shows that the Union force near Vicksburg was rapidly gaining its purpose, at the date of the last message, if indeed we may not safely believe that it has fully captured the rebel city. Such a report is stated, but it is not fully confirmed, and we patiently "wait a little longer" for the glad tidings, which we are sure must soon come. The city of Jackson, late the Capital of the of Mississippi, has been utterly destroyed, whether by its old occupants or by the National army, as a matter of military necessity, is not stated. It is very likely as the force requisite to guard the place was so much needed as a reinforcement to Grant, that it was deemed expedient to put it where no force would be necessary to watch it.

A Hopeless Case.—The recent Locofoco Convention at Vancouver, as if conscious of the hopeless condition of the Democratic party which it represented, appointed a Medical Board of Advisers, consisting of Dr. O'Brien, Dr. R. Willard, Dr. J. B. Cole, Dr. Ostrander, and Dr. O'Shiel,—every member of the Central Committee being a Doctor of Physic. These gentlemen are known to be experienced in dosing sick subjects, but if they expect to cure their present patient by an infusion of weak cole, unless it is thoroughly pulverized, we believe they will lose the case. The disease is far beyond such simple remedies; the bile and corruption in the patient's stomach has been too long gathering, and it is already in convulsions which must soon terminate in death. These Doctors may as well go home, and like the renowned Dr. Paggett of Sicamish celebrity, "let nature take its course."

Rebel Testimony.—That portion of the universal Yankee nation which classes itself as Democratic, is in the habit of berating the Administration for its inefficiency and imbecility, and at the same time claiming that no party can conduct the war successfully but the Democratic. A witness, though, comes on the stand voluntarily and testifies strongly in favor of the ability and energy with which the Administration has conducted the war. This witness is that rebel paper, the Richmond Enquirer. It says:

> The portion of our Yankee enemies who call themselves Democrats complain of the Federal Administration chiefly on the alleged ground of the want of ability. The failure of the war on the enemy's part has certainly not been for the want of vigor in its prosecution. It has been conducted with a comprehensiveness of plan and completeness of preparation which have characterized few wars that have ever been waged. * * There has been complaint against Lincoln's Administration, of neglecting to pay the soldiers, of failing to reinforce McClellan before Richmond, and of laggardness in supplying pontoons in time at Fredericksburg; but if these complaints be well founded they are isolated instances of delinquency and exceptions to the great general fact, that never were armies better equipped and supplied—never were Generals more lavishly reinforced with troops, than have been those of the North during the present war.
> The war has not miscarried from defect or imbecility in its general arrangements, or weakness of administration. * * * Considered merely with reference to its exhibition of power and resources, that country has surprised the South, outstripped its own extravagant self-estimation and amazed the world. A nation totally unused to war has developed on the sudden an army equal to that of the greatest powers now extant or which have existed. * * * *. Let the Northern Democrats and the Northern people understand and recognize this fact. The Lincoln Administration have many sins to answer for; but the sin of intimidity or want of zeal and vigor in conducting the war is not theirs.

This is the testimony of an enemy to the vigor and power developed by the Administration in the conduct of the war. The Enquirer declares that the "Lincoln Administration may have many sins to answer for, but the sin of intimidity or want of zeal and vigor in conducting the war is not theirs." Such testimony is conclusive.

A Wise Nomination.—We observe that L. Upson, Esq., of Sacramento is generally mentioned as one of the candidates for Congress from California. He has been for nearly twelve years the leading editor of the Sacramento Union, and if he should be as earnest, active, efficient and patriotic in Congress as he has been while conducting that paper, the whole Pacific Coast will have occasion to rejoice in his election.

Dalles' Licenses.—The following are the licenses paid at Dalles: Auctioneers, $200; Cheap Johns, $1,000; peddlers, $100; brokers, $400; taverns and restaurants, $100; saloons, $300; billiards, $100 for first table, and $10 for each additional; one-horse drays, $16; two-horse drays, $24; bowling alleys, $100; shows, $6.

Mail Contracts.—The Washington correspondent of the State Journal says:

> The Second Assistant Postmaster General has just entered into a contract with the Oregon Steam Navigation Company for transportation of the mails six times a week from Portland to Dalles, at a compensation of ten thousand dollars per annum; also, with W. D. Bigelow from Dalles to Walla Walla three times a week at a compensation of fourteen thousand dollars.

Letter from Walla Walla.

Walla Walla, W. T., May 24th, 1863.

Editor Oregonian:

A portion of the statistics below are from an article which appeared in the Washington Statesman, with some additions by myself. The leading facts are from the Assessor's annual report for Walla Walla county. They give a good idea of the growth of the county and the rate at which wealth is being accumulated at this point.

ABSTRACT OF ASSESSOR'S REPORT.

The report of the Assessor shows the following facts:

Number of legal voters	713
Total population	[illegible]957
Number of horses	[illegible]465
" " mules	438
" " sheep	[illegible]864
" " neat cattle	3,957
" " hogs	712
Acres of Indian corn	[illegible]515
" " timothy	410
" " wheat	4,787
" " oats	4,515
" " barley	1,486
" " potatoes	256
Number of business houses	31
Total valuation	$1,112,9[illegible]1

ESTIMATE OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS FOR 1863.

The Statesman makes the following estimate of the agricultural products of Walla Walla county the coming harvest:

ACRES.	YIELD.	TOTAL.	PRICE.	VALUE.
4787 Wheat	20 bush.	95,[illegible]	$1 50	$143,[illegible]
1,515 Corn	30 "	45,450	1 00	45,450
4,515 Oats	30 "	135,450	60	81,270
1,486 Barley	30 "	44,580	75	33,435
256 Potatoes	150 "	38,400	[illegible]	17,700
410 Timothy	1 ton	410	10 00	4,100
Total value				$322,415

The yield and prices are at the lowest figures; and, from the present very promising state of the crops, I believe the agricultural products of this valley will amount to at least half a million dollars this year.

PROFITS FROM LIVE STOCK.

I append my own estimates of the profits accruing from live stock, taking the Assessor's figures and estimating values:

1,465 Horses,	$20 apiece	$29,300
438 Mules	75 "	32,850
1,864 Sheep	3 "	5,592
3,957 Cattle	10 "	39,570
712 Hogs	2 "	1,424
Total value		$108,5[illegible]

Allowing an natural increase and profit of 20 per cent., there will be a gain of $21,607 20 from live stock alone, the present season. The shipment of about 20,000 pounds of wool, of which 17,000 pounds went to Portland, is noted. I am not well enough informed in respect to sheep to know whether 1,864 sheep will produce that amount of wool, or not.

RECAPITULATION.

I estimate, from the foregoing statements, the gross profits of the farms and herds, adding the profits of the mining trade and permanent improvements, at these figures:

Crops for 1863	$3[illegible]0,000 00
Increase of live stock	21,607 20
Wool, (20,000 pounds at 10c)	2,000 00
Profits on mining trade	50,000 00
Permanent improvements	75,000 00
Total	$4[illegible]5,607 20

To all this may be added a large increase of live stock by immigration.

DULL TIMES AT PRESENT.

All the people that could get off, have gone to Boise mines, but by harvest time, many must return to get in their crops. Liberal.

Rebel Cruelties.—The Nashville Union publishes the following statement of the manner in which Union men in the South are treated by the rebels. Are such savage barbarities ever denounced by copperheads? Of course not; they are too busy denouncing the Administration and its "abolition" supporters. The Nashville paper says:

> Some thirty refugees reached this city on Sunday from East Tennessee and Cherokee county, North Carolina. They relate many revolting cruelties practiced by the rebel fiends in that fearfully oppressed region, upon loyal citizens. They state that two companies of Cherokee Indians are acting as Provost Guard in Knoxville. The savages act in a most horrid manner. The rebel cavalry scour the country in squads, one Indian accompanying each party, in search of Union conscripts, who are endeavoring to flee the country. The rebel Provost Marshal has offered the Indians two dollars for every Union man they kill. A short time before the refugees fled they saw a party of Indians coming in with a string of fourteen ears, which they had cut from the dead bodies of Union men, this being the mode which they have adopted to count their victims. For each ear they received five dollars from the rebel commander. What punishment will be severe enough for these brutes? Terrible will be the vengeance which our army will wreak for all these crimes.

Arming Negroes along the Mississippi.—An officer of the Seventh Regiment Missouri Volunteers, now on duty on the Lower Mississippi, has written a letter to one of his friends, containing the following:

> Old Adjutant-General Thomas visited us a few days since, and elucidated the grand principles upon which the negro regiments were to be formed, and the purposes to which the Government intends to put them, and judging from our own brigade, it appeared to give general satisfaction. Speeches were made by Gens. Thomas, McPherson, Logan, McArthur, Stevenson, Legett, etc. It seems they are to be officered by men from volunteer regiments, and that he (Gen. Thomas) has blank commissions, already signed by the President, to issue immediately for five or seven years. Some 800 applications went in for the commissions in one day from this division. Some 40 of them were from our regiment, and among them was a Captain for a Colonelcy—one Lieutenant for a Lieutenant-Colonelcy, and another Lieutenant for a Majorship—and Sergeants too numerous to mention. I have not yet learned what success their applications met with. It is no use to say white men will not command negroes, for I know better. I have little doubt of the success of the undertaking, if they will place proper officers over negroes.

Efficiency of the Blockade.—While the rebel sympathizers in the North and in Europe scoff at the blockade, the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist declares that the blockade running of which some Southern journals boast so loudly, is all a sham; that no ships get through the blockading fleet save those laden with such things (silks, broadcloths, adamantine candles, Windsor soap, sherry, champagne, Sprague prints and Ohio cheese), as the Confederacy does not really need and could do very well without; that all such as have on board "medicines, guns, powder and munitions of war invariably get caught; that outgoing vessels filled with cotton, tobacco, etc.," are never molested; and that the whole thing is a humbug upon the Confederate authorities, is in reality managed by the Yankees, and is intended solely for their benefit. This is perhaps the most remarkable view of the blockade yet taken, and is a singularly frank acknowledgment of the entire and utter efficiency of the blockade in keeping out of the dominions of Jeff Davis everything which could be of benefit to his majesty's "Government."

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 28th.

New York, May 27th.—A special dispatch from Murfreesboro says, that rebel prisoners report that on Sunday last, 24th, a courier arrived with a dispatch from Col. Breckinridge to Gen. Wheeler, at McMinnville, saying that Vicksburg has fallen. Pemberton escaped with most of his army, but lost most of his artillery.

Chicago, May 28th.—A special dispatch from Memphis says, the steamer Luminary, which left Young's Point near Vicksburg, has arrived. A passenger on board reports that the two outer works of the enemy had been taken at Vicksburg, leaving but one to take. The rebels were completely surrounded—Grant's army stretching entirely around the city from river to river. Grant had captured 800 prisoners and 81 guns, field pieces.

Jackson, Miss., had been destroyed. The federal army that captured that city is now acting as reinforcements for Grant at Vicksburg.

Cairo, May 27th.—Our latest dates from Sherman's Landing are to Saturday morning, 23d. In Friday's attack on the fortifications a sanguinary battle ensued in which the federal loss was severe. The rebels fought with coolness and desperation, reserving their fire until our forces came within murderous range. The rebels were driven back, however, by main force into the line of entrenchments. That was the situation on Friday evening, and the contest had not been renewed when the boat left on Saturday morning. The mortar boats were throwing occasional shells. We have captured the batteries both above and below the town.

Chicago, May 28th.—Correspondence from Grant's army, dated May 20th, says our wounded in the battle at Champion Hill, on the 16th, number over 1,000. The enemy's loss was said to be not over half that number. We had 20,000 troops engaged; according to rebel statements the enemy had about 10,000. We took about 3,000 prisoners, and at the bridge about 3,000 more. Gen. Sherman crossed the Big Black river on pontoon bridges on Saturday; McPherson and McClernand built bridges on Sunday night and crossed their commands by Monday noon. By four o'clock that afternoon, the advance of Gen. Sherman's corps, under Steele, reached the enemy's works back of the city, and took position on the right of the bluff above it, and commenced bombarding. Gen. McPherson planted his command in front, or in our centre, and McClernand took his position on the extreme left, reaching almost to the river below. All the forenoon of yesterday, 19th, the different brigades were taking position, forming lines of battle, &c. At 2 o'clock the battle began in earnest. Gen. Steele drove the enemy from several forts and took one complete line of fortifications fronted by rifle pits. His extreme right rested on the river bank under the bluff at sundown. His division fought gallantly all day through, hungry, dirty, foot-sore and sleepy. Sherman's left and McPherson's right were in supporting distance, and advanced their lines of skirmishers within 500 yards of the breastworks, and their artillery to within the same distance, and are in position at these distances now. McClernand is not progressing so fast, but is doing well. We lost about 1,000 in killed and wounded yesterday.

Washington, May 28th.—The Richmond Enquirer, of May 25th, has the following:—The enemy assaulted our entrenchments yesterday, on our centre and left. They were repulsed with heavy loss—our loss was small. The enemy's force is at least 60,000.

Vicksburg, May 21st.—The enemy (Federals) kept up a heavy artillery firing to-day; two of our guns were dismounted in the centre; our works however were uninjured.—Their sharp-shooters picked off officers and men all day. Our works were repaired and guns remounted last night. Our men are encouraged by the report that Johnson is near with a large army. Afternoon:—We have had brisk artillery firing to-day, and also heavy mortar firing from the gunboats.—3 o'clock P. M.—During the past two days, transports with troops have gone up the Yazoo river,—destination unknown.

Mobile, May 23d.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser & Register, dated to-day, says: The enemy has been foiled. His dead strew the ground in front of our works; according to our estimate his loss is 10,000. Firing was heard at intervals last night and to-day.

Note by the Reporter.—As rebel communication to Vicksburg is entirely cut off, their statements as to federal repulses, when our accounts say nothing on the subject, must be taken with allowance.

NOTICE.

A. J. BUTLER,
Pioneer Hatter,

WOULD RESPECTFULLY call the attention of the public generally, and to some of the citizens of Portland particularly, that he DOES NOT deal in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, &c. &c., but he does desire to inform them that he is a Legitimate Practical Hatter, and has served a regular apprenticeship to become so. We deal in nothing but HATS AND CAPS,
and have them in
Every Variety, Style, Color, Shape & Price
to be found in a first class Hatter's Store.
In selling a gentleman a Hat, we do not permit him to wear the same (if it be a Soft Hat) out of our establishment until the packing creases have been removed, and if it be a Stiff Hat, until it has been moulded and shaped to suit the particular formation of his head.
We do not ask a person a price expecting to fall to one half the original price asked. BUT ONE PRICE, and no abatement in our way of doing business.
That principle being understood, we solicit the patronage of the public generally.

Recorder's Court.—D. Monroue was raigned yesterday for peddling without a cense, and in order to keep the existence such a law fresh in his memory, his Hon imposed upon him a fine of ten dollars a costs, which was paid.

Drunks and disorderly conduct are on th increase at present, but only one offender w brought forward yesterday under that hea Jacob Kinze was fined five dollars and cost for violent conduct, which was paid.

Fast riding, fighting, &c., are getting to b an unusual occurrence; in fact, a case of th kind would now be dished up as quite a rarit It may be possible, however, if the weath proves unusually warm, that a case or tw of assault and battery will be scared up to-da

Mechanics' Brass Band.—This excellen Brass Band deserve a special notice for the patriotic, liberal and accommodating dispos tion, frequently manifested, to assist and e courage any public undertaking by our people We have often been delighted with the exce lent music of this Band, and sufficient ev dence of their proficiency and industry ha been given our citizens to prove their worthi ness, and that they should be rewarded liber ally in a proper and encouraging manner.

Iron Stairway.—We took a look the other day at a pair iron stairs, set up at Smith's & Davis's Drug Store, and pronounce them an improvement of the age, combining neatness, convenience, strength and durability, all of which are important points where room is needed and rents high.

Fourth of July Meeting.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Portland was held last evening in the Council Chamber, for the purpose of adopting measures for the celebration of the coming Fourth of July. The meeting was called to order by Col. Wm. M. King, whereupon Hon. E. D. Shattuck was called to the Chair, and F. B. Trevett and P. C. Schuyler, Jr., chosen Secretaries.

Hon. Amory Holbrook being invited to address the meeting, made a few eloquent remarks, urging the expediency of celebrating the coming anniversary of our Independence in an appropriate manner,—mentioning the duty that we, as American citizens, owe to our ancestors and our posterity—our God and our country—to honor the great natal day of our Nation in a proper manner.

Voted: That a committee of four from each ward be appointed by the Chair, as a Committee of Arrangements. The following gentlemen were appointed: 1st Ward—H. D. Green, A. Dodge, A. M. Starr, and A. B. Elfelt; 2d Ward—A. H. Johnson, Chas. Hodge, Joseph Buchtel, and C. P. Bacon; 3d Ward—E. J. Northrup, S. J. McCormick, W. S. Caldwell, and Levi Estes.

Voted, that a committee on finance of two from each ward be appointed. Chair appointed, 1st Ward—Josiah Failing, Jno McCraken; 2d Ward—J. M. Breck, H. W. Corbett; 3rd Ward—Henry Law, A. G. Richardson.

Voted, that Committee on Finance pay all bills signed by the President and Secretary of the Committee of Arrangements, out of any funds on hand for that purpose.

Voted, that the Committee of Arrangements extend an invitation to the citizens of this State and Washington Territory to participate in the coming celebration.

Voted, that each committee have power to fill vacancies.

Eloquent and patriotic remarks were made during the evening by Hon. Elwood Evans, Secretary of State of Washington Territory, and others.

Voted, that copies of these proceedings be furnished to the daily papers of the city.

P. C. Schuyler, Jr., } Secretaries.

Protection No. 4.—At the regular monthly meeting of Protection Engine Company No. 4, held on Monday evening last, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That we, the officers and members of Protection Engine Company No. 4, do honor the coming anniversary of our National Independence by uniting with the rest of the Fire Department of this city, or so much thereof as are willing, in a full dress parade.

Resolved, That a committee of two be appointed to confer with the committees from other companies of the Department and of the city, and be empowered to make the necessary arrangements in our behalf.

Fourth of July.—Let us all throw in for a grand celebration, for a good dinner, on the Fourth; but not for ourselves, but for the thousands of bleeding soldiers in the service of our country. Send every dime thus appropriated, that they may be comfortable for one day in a year. We as citizens are not true to our citizen soldiers, if we enjoy ourselves on that day, when we know that those who are fighting our country's battles, are in want of the common comforts of life! Hand in your mites to the Sanitary Fund.
A Citizen.

New Church in Salem.—We understand that a Catholic Church is soon to be built at the Capital, about fifty feet long by twenty-six feet wide, with a vestry attached, to be twenty-five feet long by eighteen in width.

The Right Spirit.—The eldest son of Longfellow, the poet, only eighteen years of age, determined on entering the military service of the country, and, to learn the soldier's life from the beginning, enlisted as a private in Capt. McCarthey's Battery of Massachusetts Artillery, stationed at the seat of war, and for several weeks discharged, in a manner that gave entire satisfaction to his captain, the hardest and most disagreeable duties of a private of horse artillery. Neither he nor his father made any effort to get him a commission, though probably no youth in America has stronger influences, arising from parental distinction, wealth, social connections and family friends, than he. A commission has, however, been recently given him as Second Lieutenant in the First Massachusetts Cavalry on the recommendation of field officers of the regiment, who knew his qualifications as a horseman, and his knowledge of drill and tactics acquired by nearly two years' steady and persevering practice in the drill-clubs of Boston.

Is that my Mother?

MRS. M. [illegible]

[illegible]
With her [illegible] hand on his brow
And [illegible] a mother's [illegible] eyes
[illegible]
Sweet [illegible]
[illegible]

Dark were the walls of the hospital,
And many a son lay there,
Unloved by a mother's glance,
Unblessed by a mother's care.
But [illegible]
Amid these scenes of pain and woe.

Once [illegible]
The [illegible]
Smiled [illegible]
[illegible]
Like [illegible] the hope—like heaven the thought;
[illegible]

She pressed the clinging [illegible]
[illegible]
And the faltering voice [illegible]
[illegible]
And her quivering lips [illegible]
She was not the mother he loved so well.

Ah! brave little soldier, thy precious dust,
Enshrined in our memory,
We will keep forever a holy trust—
[illegible] of liberty.
Though thy death-white [illegible] far off land
May never be pressed by a mother's hand.

O! woman sitting in [illegible] home—
O! woman [illegible]
There are many a mother [illegible]
Where your [illegible]
And many a soldier boy [illegible]
Thinking his mother was at his side.

*Among the many brave, uncomplaining fellows who were brought up from the battlefield of Fredericksburg, was a bright-eyed, intelligent young man, or boy, rather, of sixteen years, who belonged to a Southern regiment. He appeared more affectionate and tender than his comrades, and attracted a good deal of attention from the attendants and visitors. Manifestly the pet of the household, he longed for nothing so much as the arrival of his mother, who was expected, for she knew he was mortally wounded and failing fast. Ere she arrived, however, he died. But he thought she had come, for while a kind lady visitor was wiping the death sweat from his brow, as his sight was failing, he rallied a little, like an expiring taper in its socket, looked up longingly and joyfully, and in the tenderest pathos whispered, quite audibly, "Is that mother?" in tones that drew tears from every eye. Then, drawing her towards him with all his feeble power, he nestled his head in her arms, like a sleeping infant, and thus died, with the sweet word "mother" on his quivering lips.

Taking up a Collection.

Rarely have we heard a better story, or a better told story, than this, from a reverend gentleman in Missouri:

The life of a preacher in a new country, from a secular point of view, is hardly as smooth and free from difficulty as a position in more cultivated and populous communities usually appear to be. The people are thinly scattered here and there, engaged in different pursuits, though chiefly agricultural. Being collected from all parts of the older States, and gathered from every class of society, they meet upon the same common ground, upon terms of easy familiarity, and restrained by no irksome conventionalities. People in a new country generally have a pretty hard time of it. They live a sort of "rough and tumble" life, wearing out their very best efforts in a struggle for existence. Under these circumstances the material sometimes absorbs completely the spiritual; and the people not unfrequently "get so far behind" with the preacher they have to be powerfully "stirred up," from the pulpit.

"On one occasion we had a visit from the presiding elder of our district at one of our quarterly meetings. We had not paid our preacher "any dime," as the boys say, and we expected a scoring from the elder.

Well, we were not disappointed. He preached us a moving discourse from the text "OWE NO MAN ANYTHING." At the close of the sermon he came at once to the subject in hand.

"Brethren," said he, "have you paid Brother —— anything this year? Nothing at all, I understand. Well, now, your preacher can't live on air, and you must pay up—pay up, that's the idea. He needs twenty-five dollars now, and must have it! Steward, we'll take up a collection now."

Here some of the audience near the door began to slide out.

"Don't run! don't run!" exclaimed the elder! "Steward, lock that door, and fetch me the key," he continued, coming down out of the pulpit and taking his seat by the stand table in front.

The Steward locked the door, and then deposited the key on the table by the side of the elder.

"Now, Steward," said he, "go round with the hat. I must have twenty-five dollars out of this crowd before one of you shall leave this house."

Here was a "fix." The congregation were taken all aback. The old folks looked astonished; the young folks tittered. The steward gravely proceeded in the discharge of his official duties.

The hat was passed around, and at length deposited on the elder's table. The elder poured "the funds" on the table, and counted the amount.

"Three dollars and a half! A slow start, brethren! Go round again, steward. We must pull up a heap stronger than that!

Around went the steward again, and finally pulled up at the elder's stand.

"Nine dollars and three quarters. Not enough yet. Go around again, steward!"

Around went the steward, with the hat, the third time.

"Twelve dollars and a half! Mighty slow, brethren! 'Fraid your dinners will all get cold before you get home to eat them! Go round again, steward!"

By this time the audience began to be fidgety. They evidently thought the joke was getting to be serious. But the elder was relentless. Again and again circulated the indefatiguable hat, and slowly but surely, the "pile" on the table swelled towards the requisite amount.

"Twenty-four dollars and a half! Only lack half a dollar. Go round again, steward!"

Just then there was a tap on the window from the outside; a hand was thrust in holding a half dollar between the thumb and finger, and a young feller outside exclaimed:

"Here, Parson, here's your money! Let my gal out of there! I'm tired of waiting for her!"

It was "the last hair that broke the camel's back;" and the preacher could exclaim, in the language of Ike Turtle, "This 'ere meetin's bust up."

LARGE DOSE.—A Major of one of our Western regiments—the Major being dry—sent his contraband to the Brigade Commissary with the following note. "Commissary—Please send by bearer a little whiskey to mix my medicine with." So far good, but when the contraband showed his vial for the Major's medicine, it was three canteens—a decent dose!

HONORABLE EMPLOYMENT.—Let the young man remember there is nothing derogatory in any employment which ministers to the well being of the race. It is the spirit that is carried into any employment that elevates it or degrades it. The plowman that turns the clod may be a Cincinnatus or Washington, or he may be a brother to the clod he turns. There is no glory in the act of affixing a signature by which the treasures of commerce are transferred, or treaties between nations are ratified; the glory consists in the rectitude of purpose that approves the one, and the grandeur of the philanthropy that sanctifies the other.

A short time since a gentleman called on the President and solicited a pass for Richmond. "Well," said the President, "I would be very happy to oblige you, if my passes were respected; but the fact is, Sir, I have, within the past two years, given passes to two hundred and fifty thousand men to go to Richmond, and not one has got there yet." The applicant quietly and respectfully withdrew on his tip-toes.

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no disagreement with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
